SUBJECT:

May 30 Anniversary

According to information to hand, the local schools will not observe a holiday on the occasion of this anniversary. However, it is possible that Chungking sympathizers may take the opportunity for the dissemination of propaganda literature bearing on the anniversary.

It is likely that local communist elements may post communistic posters in the vicinity of Cennaught and Robison Roads.

Under the auspices of the Shanghai office of the Ministry of Publicity of the Nanking Government, articles denouncing British aggression in China will be published in the local press.

Any further information obtained in the meantime will be made the subject of a further report.

SUBJECT:

Shanghai Special Municipality Social Movement Direction Committee - to push a charitable sale of artificial flowers on the Parents' Day, May 10th.

Attached is a letter submitted on May 9, by the Shanghai Special Municipality Social Movement Direction Committee, North Soochow Road, requesting the Police for permission to allow the latter to push a charitable sale of artificial flowers in the Settlement on the occasion of Parents' Day, May 10th Anniversary. Between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m., on that day, 200 boy-scotts of the local educational bodies will be detailed in groups of two persons each to push sale of artificial flowers at the entrances of various amusement resorts in the Settlement. A total of 10,000 pieces of flowers made of paper in red, blue and white colours have been prepared and will be sold at $1 each. The money such raised from the sales after deducting the cost for the flowers will be donated to the local charitable organizations for relief purposes.

Zung Yen-chuen (鄭言川), a delegate of the Committee was interviewed at Police Headquarters on May 9, and confirmed the above.

May 30th Anniversary

There is no indication at present that the local Chinese community, either Kuomintang sympathizers or Wang Ching Wei adherents, will commemorate the May 30th incident by holding meetings or demonstrations. Opportunity will no doubt be taken for the dissemination of propaganda literature bearing on the anniversary. Schools, factories and business concerns do not intend recognizing the day as a holiday, however, Chinese factories will observe the day ^aas/holiday as it coincides with the Dragon Boat Festival.

Any further information obtained in the meantime will be made the subject of a further report.

MAY 9 NATIONAL HUMILIATION DAY

5
KID

May 9 was formerly observed as a national humiliation day. The Government fixed this anniversary day in order that the people should not forget the ambitions of the Japanese in their invasion of China. However, after July 7 was fixed as an anniversary day, the May 9 national humiliation anniversary was abolished.

Cwing to the special circumstances prevailing in this city, people have been commemorating this anniversary day spiritually during the past three years. However, to express their sorrow, the people will cease all kinds of amusements and parties and observe a vegetarian diet to show that they will never forget this national humiliation. They will also practise thrift, help the refugees and donate savings for the reconstruction of the nation.

The Settlement authorities will adopt precautionary measures against disturbances by undesirable elements.

S.1. Special Branch

Station. File No. Date April 30, 1941

SUBJECT: International Labour Day, May 1
- further report

In connection with the May 1 anniversary, there is nothing of significance to be added to the Special Branch report of April 25.

Apart from observing the day as a holiday by the local labouring classes, the Chinese community will refrain from holding meetings or demonstrations owing to the delicate situation prevailing. There is no indication that any organized movement will take place in the O.O.L. areas in observance of the anniversary.

Surreptitious dissemination of propaganda literature will in all probability take place in the Settlement and French Concession.

S.I. Special Branch Station File No. Date April 25, 1941

SUBJECT: International Labour Day - May 1

There is no indication that the local Chinese Community will conduct any activities openly in commemoration of International Labour Day, May 1. Articles appropriate to the occasion will no doubt make their appearance in the local press. Opportunity may also be taken for the surreptitious dissemination of propaganda leaflets of a national salvation and anti-Wang Ching Wei nature.

A number of local Industrial and Commercial concerns, all newspaper offices and news agencies will observe this day as a holiday. Schools will open as usual and it is not expected that meetings in commemoration of the occasion will be held by any of the local public bodies.

No indication so far exists of projected activities in connection with the other anniversaries, namely :

May 3 : Anniversary of the Tsinan Incident (1928)

May 4 : Anniversary of the outbreak of the General Strike in 1919, caused by student agitation.

May 5 : Anniversary of the Assumption of office by the late Dr. Sun Yat-sen in 1921 in the Canton Government.

LABOUR DAY TO BE OBSERVED IN SHANGHAI.

May 1, the International Labour Day, is approaching; it will be observed by local labourers as a holiday. Owing to extraordinary conditions prevailing in Shanghai, no celebrations or meetings will be held. Owing to high cost of living, it is hoped that the employers will improve treatment and relieve the hardship of the labourers.

On the labour day the police forces of the Settlement and the French Concession will adopt precautionary measures for the maintenance of peace and good order.
